

I totally oppose the concentration of media outlets to fewer and fewer huge corporations. The American people in each and every town and city need to have a variety of local and global information from more than one media conglomerate.

I want Mr Powell to release to the general public the SPECIFIC language of the rule change. We have the right to know, and to be able to respond to the SPECIFIC language of the rule he proposes.